T R E E S

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a Tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;

A tree that looks to God all day
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;

A tree that may in summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair;

Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

—Joyce Kilmer.

FOREWORD

Like Trees that are firmly rooted in the ground and that are always reaching toward the sky, may we become firmly rooted to the ideals of Union and strive ever toward the highest.

The Staff humbly submits this annual with the sincere hopes that it will serve as a pleasant reminder of the delightful associations and happy hours spent in Union College.

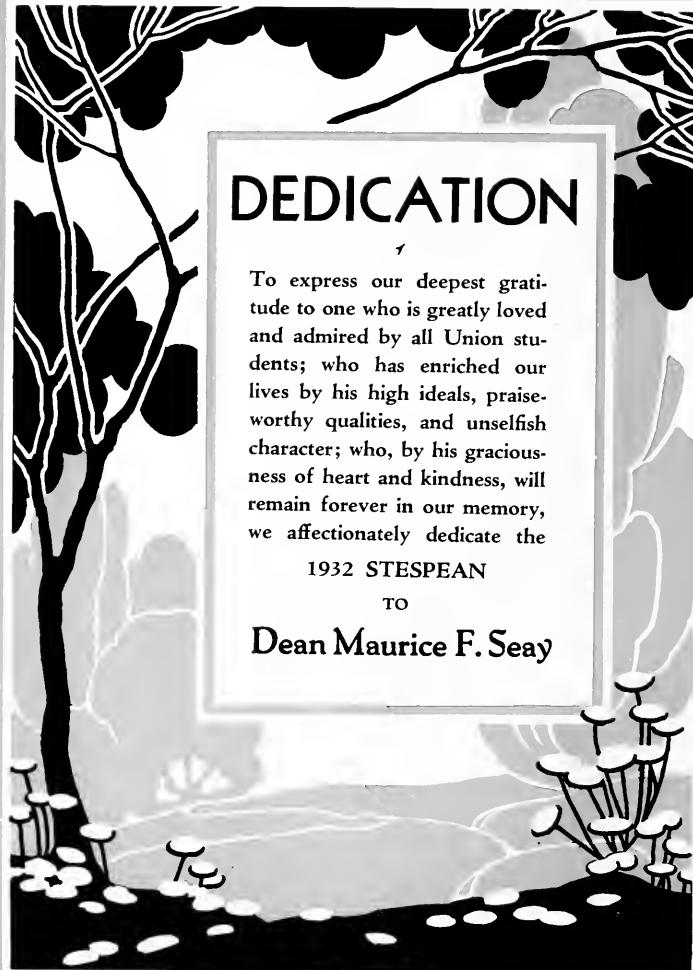

DEDICATION

To express our deepest gratitude to one who is greatly loved and admired by all Union students; who has enriched our lives by his high ideals, praiseworthy qualities, and unselfish character; who, by his graciousness of heart and kindness, will remain forever in our memory, we affectionately dedicate the

THE STESPEAN, 1932

Erected in honor of those who founded our College, the Entrance Memorial welcomes all who enter and bids them live up to the ideals of those who paved the way.

THE STESPEAN, 1932

Our Administration Building, symbolic of the serious side of college life, still brings back to us memories of joyous occasions as well as hard work.

Thoughts of pleasant hours spent at swimming, basketball games, and parties flood upon us when we recall the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Gymnasium.

THE STESPEAN, 1932

Named in honor of a great man, Stevenson Hall sends forth others trained for service in the world.

Homelike in atmosphere as well as appearance, Speed Hall will dwell forever in the memories of the young women who have lived there.

THE STESPEAN, 1932

Among memories of the old campus the President's Home will have a permanent place, for its beauty and charming hospitality have endeared it to us all.

Snow covers the earth with its icy blanket, but all is warmth and cheer within Stevenson Hall.

THE STESPEAN, 1932

Football Season, 1931

The Bulldogs, hard hit by graduation of the previous year, faced their schedule with the smallest and most inexperienced team in the history of the school.

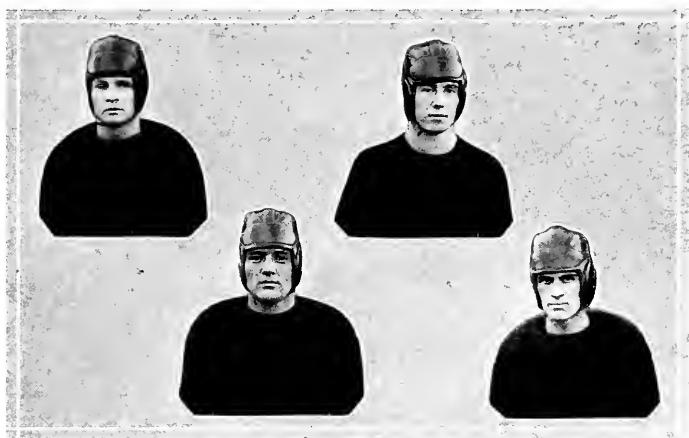

The Bulldogs were conquered by L. M. U., Georgetown, Maryville, and Cedarville, before they seemed to hit their stride. The next two games were decisive victories over their old rivals, Sue Bennett and Tennessee Teachers. After losing to Morehead, they ended the season at Transylvania by losing a hard-fought game by one point.

Coach Bacon deserves much credit for his work with the boys. Due to losing only five regulars from the squad, prospects for the coming season look bright.

SCORES

U. C.	12-13	Transylvania
U. C. Points	69	Opponents' Points 162

THE STESPEAN, 1932

Football Season, 1931

LLOYD PATTERSON

Quarterback, Captain

"Runt," the high scorer of the South in 1930, was confined to his bed the first six weeks of the season because of an injury. He is one of the few quarterbacks that can call a game without a flaw, and his special feat is running back punts. "Runt" has again been elected captain for the year of 1932, and we hope he has his best year next season.

BUFORD CLARK

Center

Union's line captain, "Bufie," was out part of the season because of injuries, and we sure missed him. He is one of the best linemen in Union's history. "Bufie" graduates, and his place will be hard to fill. Our bad luck is Reba's good luck. More power, "Bufie"!

EARL KILBOURNE

Guard

"Von," another senior, ended his career in a blaze of glory. Playing exceptionally well at either guard or tackle, he was a stone wall to enemy backs. "Von's" graduation will leave a large gap in the line for next season.

HARRY TAYLOR

Halfback

"Flashiest back in the state!" a triple threat if there ever was one. Harry kept them guessing while he was in the game. He is a senior, and Union will miss the "Corbin" flash."

THE STESPEAN, 1932

Football Season, 1931

CHESTER FIELDS
Guard

Out last year because of injuries, Chester came back strong this season and proved a tower of strength in the forward wall. He ended his career by showing Transy how "it should be done."

MILTON GALBRAITH
Guard

This was "Gally's" first year with the Bulldogs. Although small, he had plenty of power and was one of Union's most deadly blockers. He never knew how it felt to be whipped. We are expecting great work from him during the next three years.

MATT ASHER
End

Matt, playing his first year as a Unionite, gave his opponents something to think about. "Keep 'em guessing!" was his motto. Matt has two years left to show his wares.

RUFUS BAILEY
Guard

"Rufe" plays anywhere in the line, and how he does it! When coach wants a hole stopped, he just has to say, "Bailey, warm up." He has another year to strut his stuff for the Orange and Black.

LINCOLN COMBS
Tackle

"Link" played throughout in the opponents' backfield. A power on the offense and a stone wall on the defense. We're expecting an All-State berth for him next year.

JOHN YORK
End

Another fighting "Red Devil" from Russell High, and that says it all. Playing his first year as a Bulldog, showed that "Daddy" had the fight. We shall be watching his next three years at Union.

THE STESPEAN, 1932

Football Season, 1931

ARTHUR DECKER

Halfback

"Red," playing his second year of football, came along fine, and at the end of the season was a regular back. We hate to lose the "Hoosier Demon" from our squad for next year.

ED SIMPSON

Fullback

"Suit-Case" was shifted to the backfield this year by Coach Bacon and showed up well. He was high-point man on the team. "Simp" has two more years at Union.

WALTER WOODS

Fullback

"Woody" came to us from Berea this year. Inexperienced but willing, he never missed a day of practice. Keep it up, "Woody"; we're with you.

ED BRUNK

End

On account of injuries "Broncho" was forced to the side lines most of the season, but was always out for practice. That is the spirit which we need to make a winning ball club.

WILLIS PICKERILL

Center

"Pick" had more pep and chatter than any one else on the squad. He is expected to fill that large gap at center next year, and we all know that he has it in him.

BERT SCENT

End

Another first-year man and one of the smallest on the squad, but what a bear on defense! Always under the interference and first man down on punts. He is known as the "ball-hawk" of the team."

THE STESPEAN, 1932

Football Season, 1931

ED LANDRETH
Halfback

A reserve last year, a regular this year. Ed showed much progress over last year and has two years remaining. Our future quarterback, "Go get 'em, Ed."

WILLIAM BARTON
Tackle

"Hobo" was always willing to do his best. "Big and tough," they called him, and he sure proved it. It is Bill's first year as a Bulldog, and we can expect much from him in the years to come.

EMANUEL SAYLOR
Tackle

"Molus" was the most improved man on the squad. He played consistent ball throughout the year, and we are expecting much from him as a junior and senior.

RILEY HARROD
End and Back

"Louisville Lou," punter, passer, ball-toter, or what have you? Played equally well at end or in the backfield. He has three more years in which to play for Union.

REID ELAM
Fullback

Reid was always driving, head up and body low. A regular demon on both offense and defense. If he doesn't make an All-State berth before his next three years are over, we'll surely be disappointed.

HAROLD WILLIAMS
Tackle

"Hog-Tom," playing his first season for the Orange and Black, proved a valuable asset. You will hear from this boy before he leaves us. He wants another crack at Transy. "What say, Tom?"

BACON, Coach; PATTERSON, SHIFLEY, FIELDS, DECKER; HORRALL, Manager
HIND, SIMPSON, H. TYE, TAYLOR, G. TYE

Varsity Basketball

In spite of the fact that only four letter men reported for practice and all were small, Coach Bacon began work with the same determination that produced a winning football team, and the result was a winning combination.

Cumberland, L. M. U., and Centre were rolled aside with ease, but the good luck would not hold forever. Two regulars were lost at a critical time, and the handicap was hard to overcome.

Throughout the season the boys played great ball and deserve much credit for the fine spirit and fight displayed.

Varsity Basketball

COACH J. R. BACON

Handicapped by a shortage of experienced men, a situation similar to the football problem, Coach worked hard and produced a winning team. Words cannot express the appreciation of the school to our coach who has been so successful.

HARRY TAYLOR, Captain Forward

Harry, the high scorer of the team, led his team as no one else could. The fastest man on the squad and death on crip shots. Harry has been a regular for the past four years, and Union regrets that he is graduating. Luck, Harry!

ARTHUR DECKER Forward

"Red" comes from Indiana, and that spells basketball. One of the fastest men on the squad and a wizard at handling the ball. We sure hate to lose him this year, but we wish him much success.

LLOYD PATTERSON Forward

"Runt" is small, but his speed makes him a much-dreaded man by all opponents. He has plenty of fight and is very clever at handling the ball. He has one more year at Union.

ALFRED HIND Guard

"Sphinx" is playing his first year of varsity ball, graduating from last year's frosh squad. A bulwark of defense under the goal as well as a good floor man. We are expecting much from him in the years to come.

Varsity Basketball

GORMAN TYE Guard

Gorman, another first-year man, was called upon by Coach to fill in what breaches occurred and always gave his best. Gorman has two years left in which to play for Union.

ED SIMPSON Guard

Ed is another rangy man who knows how to hawk that ball. He is a guard, and he never fails to get his share of points. We are expecting much from Ed the next two years.

HERB TYE Center

Herb is our center, and this is his third year with us. He likes the game and never fails to do his share of the work. He is rated as one of the best centers in the state.

GLENN SHIFLEY Guard

Shifley is a very dependable man, always ready to give all that he has. In addition to being a good guard, he has an eye for the basket. Glenn is a sophomore and has more time in which to play for Union.

CHESTER FIELDS Guard

As in football, Chester ever showed that fighting spirit which makes him a valuable man on any team. The school regrets the loss of this good man.

H. Tye, Coach; Taylor, Woods, Bledsoe, Knuckles, Smith; Huber, Manager
Williams, Miller, Eaton, Davis, York

Frosh Squad

Composed of many former High School stars and one All-State man from Pennsylvania, the freshman team of 1931-32 was far superior to any in the history of the school.

Due to lack of finances, they were unable to travel and engage any of the teams of larger schools in the state, but because of their large string of victories over teams in the surrounding vicinity, we are sure they could have conquered all.

This material will be a great asset to Coach Bacon when he begins preparation for the season of 1932-33.

The "Orange and Black," our college paper, has been published every two weeks throughout the year as a project of the class in Journalism.

The paper has always been an interesting one, filled with well-written editorials, campus notes, athletic reviews, educational clippings, and balanced by a good share of spicy humor.

This paper ranks well with those of other schools, and it deserves the continued support throughout the years to come.

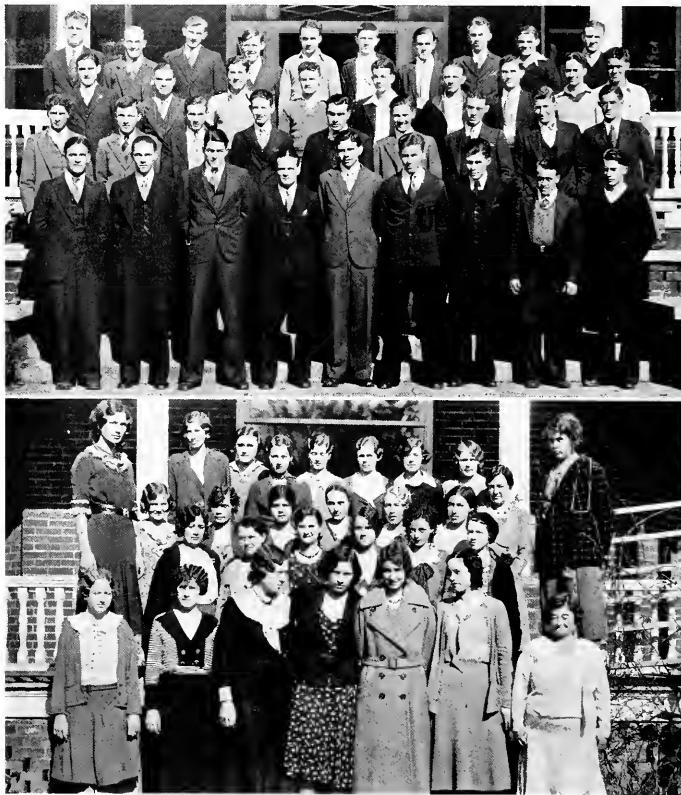

Union College Male Quartette

The Union College Male Quartette, consisting of Owen Wiley, first tenor; Miller Wiley, second tenor; Earl Frierdich, first bass; and John Eaton, second bass, was organized in 1930 by Miss Ethel G. Eversole. At the time, Phil Lovelace of the class of '31 was the baritone and Earl Frierdich sang second bass. A very interesting thing about the quartette is that each year the group has been composed of three Methodist ministers' sons and one ministerial student.

The boys have sung in many towns and cities in Kentucky and have broadcast several times. They are real musicians, and their singing has always been of such a character as to bring an invitation to return. This group is proud to have been of some real value to their Alma Mater.

THE STESPEAN, 1932

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

9—Freshmen boys and girls reach Union.

10—Initial registration for freshmen. Seventy register. Groups assigned to senior group leaders. "Sing" tonight. It doesn't take the freshmen long to get the swing and spirit of Alma Mater.

11—Formal assembly. Regularly planned day. Tonight Fred Bassett provides the entertainment. Amusing and interesting.

12—Upper classmen begin to arrive. "Jamboree." Each group has a stunt. Operation, automobile, etc.

14—Registration for upper classmen. Waiting line, long and slow moving. Freshmen go to the movies.

15—First assembly. We meet the faculty officially. More speeches this afternoon—Professor Ogg, Lloyd Patterson, Catherine Faulkner, President Gross. Organization of the Class of '35. Sponsor, Miss Haswell. Church parties. M. E. Church goes to Fairyland by air, rail, and water. Gorman Tyre and Marion Force should join the movies! Eddie tells how Samuel proposes.

16—Classes meet. Lots of changes to be made. Every one buying and selling books.

17—Chapel seats assigned. Frosh learn to wait for upper classmen to leave chapel.

18—U. C. Quartette makes its first appearance. The boys sing in chapel.

19—Quartette goes to Louisville to sing at M. E. Conference this week-end. Weather hot and sultry.

23, 24, 25—Physical exams under Drs. Gunn and Overstreet. Every one has to take them.

24—Music day—to judge from the entertainment. At 1:00 o'clock, guitar and singing on front steps of Ad. Building. Afterward, boys on steps at Stevenson Hall, give a program of popular music, led by Ed Simpson. Pep meeting on lighted field tonight. Are we proud of having night football? You bet!

25—Chapel this morning is a pep program on the bleachers. First night football game at Union. L. M. U. wins 13-12. Harry Taylor makes a beautiful run the length of the field. Frosh snake-dance in green outfits. Captain Patterson is carried on cot to field for game amid cheers from the crowd.

26—Mrs. Seay entertains faculty women in the afternoon. Y. W. C. A. mixer in gym in the evening. Large crowd and lots of fun.

27—Unusual program at Epworth League. Miss Eversole gives musical pictures.

28—Freshman initiation—and how! Amusing for the on-lookers, if not the entertainers! Now they are full-fledged Unionites.

29—First meeting of Playlikers. Election of officers: Catherine Faulkner, president; Miller Wiley, vice-president; Emma Barbe, secretary. More than seventy members. Enthusiastic discussion of the year's work. Dialogue from Dickens presented by Edna Hauser and Owen Wiley.

30—Howdy! Howdy Day a big success. Freshmen girls comical looking. What does Mildred Taylor have in that large soap box? Kodaks are seen.

OCTOBER

1—Football boys leave for Georgetown.

2—Defeat for the Bulldogs—51-0. Cheer up! Better luck next time!

5—Rain; but it stopped in time for the girls in their finery to get to the faculty reception at Speed Hall. Oh, yes, the boys were there, too. Mrs. Martin and John Eaton entertain with their violins.

6—First edition of "Orange and Black." Big walk full of strolling couples. Freshmen have different couples scared that they'll be imitated in chapel program. Even the dignified seniors—Von, Catherine, and Buford—are being nice to the freshmen program committee—John, Mildred, and Vivian.

7—Earl, John, Owen, and Miller find plenty to eat even if they do have to "sing for their supper."

THE STESPEAN, 1932

8—Lots of Freshmen caps and armbands. Even the upper classmen like them.

10—Fuller Male Quartette. Good singing and impersonations. We learn how to "make-up." "If red cheeks are a sign of good health, some Union College girls are healthier on one side than the other!" Maryville defeated us, 51-0.

11—Miller Wiley sings over WHAS, Louisville, in Atwater Kent Audition. Every one hunts a radio to "listen in." All Union students decide he is best of all.

12—Three seniors visit Freshman class meeting! Nuff sed!

13—"Cinderella Married" at Playlikers. Catherine Goins, leader.

14—Miss Eversole sports a black eye from an auto accident. Two members of the quartette have new black sweaters with "U" lyre on them. Girls wish they were members, but want to wear the sweaters anyhow.

15—Teachers register for meeting. Girls' Glee Club sings. Psychology and Education students taking notes. Pencils flying. We hear about Psychology and Ghandi.

16—Many former U. C. students at meeting. Every one glad to see every one else. Look! There's Viola, Ruth, Bob, Ted, Emily, Lurline, Reba, Hazel, and all the rest.

17—Blankets and wool clothes fail to keep you warm at Union-Cedarville game. Cedarville scored a winning touchdown sixteen seconds before the last whistle—12-7. Barbers are going to mob the football boys. No shave until a victory. Hurry, boys, and win! If you could see yourselves as others see you!

18—Sunshine—warm weather. Groups of hikers—chestnut hunters. Too pretty to stay indoors.

19—The modern girl, Catherine Faulkner, and her sweetheart, Golia Hicks, show the sorority girls how not to act in the skit, "What's Wrong with This?" Chewing gum, too much jewelry, and plenty of bad manners.

20—Good play tonight, "Such a Charming Young Man." Glynn Hind, director and group leader.

21—Senior Class picnic at Gilliam Hill. Gorgeous moon. Dean Seay auctions off a burnt apple for three exam papers belonging to Edna Hauser. Von and Miss Eaton go back for the football boys who were kept late practicing.

22—Seniors meet on steps of Ad. Building and get "snapped." Staff meeting of "Stespean." Le Cercle Francais organized. Arthur Decker elected president; Angie Ketcham, directress. Miss Myers, our sponsor, treats us to delicious refreshments. Games and contests to amuse us. What a good time we had!

23—Pollyanna gifts in evidence. Tonight, U. C. vs. Sue Bennett. Hurrah! We win! 19-6! Rufus and Harry, you can shave now!

25—Glorious weather as usual. Hills lovely with their reds, greens, and yellows. Days bright and sunshiny; nights, the moon is wonderful. Who hasn't noticed it? Ask any of the girls and their boy friends.

27—"Ghost Story!" o-oo-OOOO! "Yes, George!" Jeanna's group gives this play.

30—Beta Chi Alpha tea given for pledges. How nice it was! Miss Eaton and Jeanna Nelson can tell you how well the pledges behaved and what an enjoyable time we had! Another football victory! U. C. defeats Tennessee Teachers 18-0!

31—Ghosts nearly drowned. It rains, rains, rains. Halloween party at gym; then to Speed Hall. Costumes, ghost stories. Misses Haswell and Eversole give strangers a good impression of our faculty! What noise was that in the wee small hours of the morning? About eighteen Stevenson Hall boys serenading on College, Main, Pine, and Sycamore Streets. "Alma Mater" popular in front of the teachers' homes. Speed Hall decorated with paper. Doors locked and tied.

NOVEMBER

1—Signs everywhere. Boys' Dorm is advertised a shoe shop. Barber pole is at coach's door. Von's trunk arrives at Speed Hall.

2—Political rally in chapel. Election time draws near. We find we have some enthusiastic Democrats and Republicans. Eddie Logsdon and John Knuckles (Democrat) argue against Mildred Taylor and James Taylor (Republican). There were no fatalities.

3—Von is generous with a bottle of perfume. Seniors in front of him suffer at chapel. Whew! Saturates Catherine's coat collar. Picture man here. Look pretty, please! Speed Hall is popular with the ones who have to face the camera.

THE STESPEAN, 1932

4—More pictures! Hey, there! Come here. You are in this club. Let's get this picture taken. Drama class creates sensation by play practice. Yelling in play gets response from other sources. Even the President is disturbed. Sophomore picnic at Dishman Springs. Bonfire. The boys keep the fire burning. No one fell in the lake, thanks to Glenn's flashlight.

5—"Philosopher of Butterbiggins" given by Drama Class. Speed Hall looks like a hospital. Three doctors, two nurses. What's the trouble? The whole student body and faculty taking Dick Test for scarlet fever. Goli ill with scarlet fever.

6—Some shooting! Nearly fifty were shot by Dr. Cawood! Nothing serious, just in the arm—our first shot of scarlet fever serum. Bonfire and pep meeting on Court Square for Home-Coming game. Bonfire, set just after dark, causes fire alarm. Plenty of pep, laughter, yells, and songs. Band furnishes music. Course we'll win. The football boys were there, too. Did you see Buford and Louise, Pat and Marie?

7—Dedication of Founders' Memorial. Marble pillars at entrance. Earl busy with a kodak. Morehead game. We lose, 12-0, the first defeat at Home-Coming for several years. Buford, Von, Chester, Harry, and Arthur play football on home grounds for the last time. Good-bye, boys! We could not win without you. "The Villain Still Pursued Her," a farce by Speed Hall girls. Are Owen and Mildred really as bashful as that? Animal crackers!

9—What a crowd at the District League Meeting! What was that Earl said about being past the flirting stage?

10—Campus quiet. No one seen except the three faithful couples. The rest cramming for exams.

11—Exams! Gee, weren't they hard? Do you think you passed? A few take time to go to the Lyceum to hear Agnes Cherry, reader.

12—More studying. After French Club some rush upstairs, others out the door and home to get ready for exams tomorrow.

13—Friday the 13th, but no bad luck except that there is more shooting on the campus. How many more do we have to take? Girls' Glee Club is hostess to Boys' Glee Club at picnic to Reservoir Hill. Oh, those wishes to the new moon! The stars! The singing around the campfire to the "uke" accompaniment! Who didn't get sentimental? Did we climb or did we fall coming down the hill? Every one appreciated our serenading afterward, except "Tootsie." Do the Glee Clubs sound that terrible?

14—Ouch, don't you touch my arm! Be careful there! Lovely outdoors—but, oh, my arm!

16—College revival starts for a week.

17—Rev. and Mrs. Turley here. Fine speaker. Makes us stop and think.

18—Picture proofs! Do I look like that? Say, that's good of you!

19—Joe and Earl busy taking orders for pictures.

20—Another shot! What a life!

21—More sore arms!

22—Weather man still has his months mixed. Sun so hot that coats are left at home. The same old moon!

23—Junior Class takes advantage of lovely weather and beautiful moon. Some are faster walkers than others.

24—Glee Club girls looking like bridesmaids in white organdy dresses. Orchestra folks all "spruced up." Photographer explains it. "Everyman" at Playlikers by Barbourville High School Literature Class.

25—Bang! Bang! Another shot, but no murder! Oh, I don't want to take that shot! Want to do a little shooting myself Thanksgiving.

26—Thanksgiving. Aunt Mae sure feeds well. Lots of the boys and girls go home. Rather quiet day.

27—"Stespean" feature contest. Senior boys and Sophomore girls are the winners.

30—S. S. Henry & Co., magicians, in chapel. Watch that doll grow! Of course, he made geese out of all of us. Beautiful sand pictures. How we hated to see him tear them up!

DECEMBER

1—Freshie asks lab assistant, Friedrich, for a pinch of carbon dioxide! Combined Glee Club practice begins.

3—"Lights out" all over town. Didn't stop Glee Club practice. We had plenty of candle light. Came on in time for the Frosh-Varsity game.

THE STESPEAN, 1932

4—Last scarlet fever shot! Hooray! This is our Thanksgiving Day! Miss Eversole gives song recital in chapel.

5—B. H. S.-Frosh, 18-26. Williamsburg Independents-Varsity, 24-27. Both close and exciting.

7—Senior party at Dean Seay's. Walnut race. Pawns. Count No-Count. Santa Claus came to Union this morning.

10—"Stespean in Review." Sections shown and acted by persons—Faculty, the four Classes, Athletics, Organizations, Feature, Snaps, Calendar, Finis (editor with lily in his hand, carried in on cot. Too bad the annual is the death of all editors!) Debate tonight by University of Kentucky debaters. Was the only girl in Debate Club popular? Positively! All the other girls pay her special attention.

11—Why don't you keep your Glee Club seat?

12—Wind and more wind. What was that crash? Falling chimney caused roof to fall in at Speed Hall. Girls just back from breakfast. No casualties. Bricks all over third floor.

14—Y. W. C. A. candle-lighting service.

15—Cantata and "Hallelujah Chorus." Fun back stage. Too much mistletoe. Dead mouse! Eek! All the girls wear their new white organdy dresses. Did they feel dressed up? I'll say!

16—French Club members find Santa Claus at Speed Hall. Miss Myers is his messenger and gives all good little boys and girls toys. Stevenson Hall boys entertain Speed Hall girls with fine party. Christmas gifts to all. Did the boys get scared to carry out their threats after decorating with so much mistletoe?

17—Varsity-L. M. U.; Frosh-Knox No. 1. Both victories. Glee Club boys and girls disappointed. Several couples planned to go carolling, but could not because it rained, rained, rained!

18—"Good-bye! Hope you have a Happy Christmas and a Glad New Year!" "Au revoir." Catching trains and buses. "See you next year."

JANUARY

3—Unionites back after a grand and glorious vacation. How nice to see each other again! Even if we were having merry times, yet we missed our college crowd.

4—Not much class work. Every one trying to out-talk the other telling Christmas experiences. Large crowd at gym for League District Meeting. Eats the most popular diversion of the evening. How did John E. and Golia get at the head of the refreshment line when they were at the foot when it started?

5, 6, 7—Just like spring. Dandelions, violets, and japonicas blooming in January! Imagine! Where is our winter?

8—Library staff takes charge of chapel. Why did so many things fall to the floor? Miss Eversole lovely hostess at party for Glee Clubs this evening. Contests and games very musical. Crowd did not want to go home.

11—Hester White elected new president of Y. W. C. A.

12—Why all the smiles? Dean and Mrs. Seay have returned from Chicago after what seemed a year to the students. He tells us about his trip. What is "Wurzel-Flummery"? Ask Samuel.

13—Brownie's Creek Band sure can play. Thermometer registers 70 degrees.

15—We almost beat University of Louisville—26-22. Plenty of excitement and yells.

16—B. X. A. busy digging worms for Monday night!

18—Everything's B. X. A. tonight. Big banquet and big initiation. Shrieks and laughter! Corpse and ghost bring screams. Where did Catherine Zelma and Jeanna mysteriously disappear? Roberta and Lois raise the roof with their yelling. How those girls can climb! Too bad they got "bawled out" for being out of the dorm. Wonder how many black marks will be put against them? What do they care? They are sure-enough members of B. X. A. That's worth all the initiation one can take.

19—Catherine Goins and Cecil Lewis have a dialogue at Playlikers. Lutie's and Frances' dog raises its voice when annoyed by Miller and others.

20—Jane Pendleton still sick. Seniors miss their treasurer and the library does not seem the same.

THE STESPEAN, 1932

21—Faculty meeting in chapel. Teachers watch themselves "mocked" by the Sophs.
24—Union College Quartette sings over the radio. WHAS is the station.
25, 26—Reviewing begins in earnest. Lots of midnight oil burnt.
27, 28, 29—Semester exams. "Never again will I leave my studying to do until the last week before exams." We wonder?
30—"The Stespean" goes to press.

Events to Look Forward To

February—Beginning of Second Semester. Faculty reception. More basketball games. Y. W. C. A. mixer. Valentine party. George Washington tea. Dramatic Club play.
March—More games. Almost time for tennis. Easter and vacation.
April—Tennis. Spring football. Hikes. Glee Club operetta. Debates.
May—Exams again. Convocation Reception for Seniors. Boosters' Banquet. Alumni Banquet. Baccalaureate Sunday. Senior play. Graduation. Vacation.

Alma Mater

WORDS AND ARRANGEMENT BY
ABIGAIL E. WEEKS

*Girt with many a grand old mountain,
Stands our College dear,
While the Cumberland sings ever
Praise for her to hear.
Union College, Alma Mater,
We would praise thee, too,
For the strength of precepts taught us;
We'll to them be true.*

CHORUS

*Union College, dear old Union!
Union strong and free!
Loyal sons and daughters ever
We will live for thee.*

*For the greatest of all lessons
Praise is ever thine:
Faith in God and in our brother,
Service, too, sublime.
As we go to meet life's conflict,
We shall victors be,
If we're loyal to the precepts
Taught so well by thee.*

Wealth

*We have a log hut,
Two rickety chairs, and
A wooden bed.
There are some who call us poor,
But we have
Beauty of sunlight on rugged hills,
The murmur of clear
Waters at our feet,*

*The blue sky overhead,
And love always at our door.
We have a rusty stove,
No carpet on our floor,
But we have God
And each other.
We can't be so very poor.*

BERTHA SEARS, '34.

A Wish

*If I could write a poem
Lovely as a cherry tree
With white words falling
Like petals to your hands,
Maybe you would hear me,
And I could be telling
All that I would have you know
That I cannot say.*

DOUGLAS TERRY, '32.

My Task

*To do my very best each day,
So that my friends may truly say:
O'er his life Christ holds full sway
And guides him safely on his way.
This is my task.*

*To hear it said as eve descends:
Thou hast won thee many friends,
Thou hast lived as He intends,
Accept the peace of mind He sends.
This is my reward.*

EARL FRIEDICH, '33
